

Moving Art GLEE CLUB

2022-2023

Class Description:

NEW this year! A program geared for our talented young singer and dancers, ages 7-9.

This program will inspire young performers to explore and entertain our world through music and movement. It encourages the love of music, and full expression of each child's potential for artistic and personal excellence. Students will work collaboratively through choral songs, while joyfully moving to the beat.

This class runs all season (Sept-May). In this 1-hr class, enjoy singing fun music from Broadway and popular songs from the radio. Partake in multi-part singing, learn and understand concepts of music theory through group activities. Perform in community performances, and festivals, enjoy an uplifting positive group that encourages creativity and expression through music. Develop your voice as part of a small choral ensemble, focusing on breath support, diction, resonance and other aspects of vocal technique. Sing a diverse repertoire!
